

EXPERT HORSE RACING HANDICAPPING!

March 15, 2026

Good afternoon Turf Club Members,

GULFSTREAM PARK – R12 - 20 CENT LISTED PICK 6 PAYS $30,965.14!

Wow! The amazing Trackpro Value Rating (TPV) algorithm handicapped the late 20 cent PICK 6 (1 x 1 x 2 x 3 x 1 x 2) in R12 yesterday at Gulfstream Park that paid an incredible $30,965.14 for subscribers! And what is even more amazing is that the winning PICK 6 sequence was listed in the TOP THREE SELECTIONS! The cost to purchase a 20 cent PICK 6 ticket on the winning $30,965.14 handicapped sequence was just $145.80! And not only that, the TPV also listed the 50 cent PICK 5 (1 x 2 x 3 x 1 x 2) in R12 for subscribers that paid a wallet-busting $24,429.35! The cost to purchase a 50 cent PICK 5 ticket on the handicapped sequence was just $121.50! The listed 50 cent PICK 5 and 20 cent PICK 6 together returned a total of $55,394.49 which required an investment of only $267.30 using just the TOP THREE TRACKPRO SELECTIONS in each leg! That is absolutely superb handicapping is it not? It sure is!

THE TRACKPRO REPORTS ARE JAMMED PACKED WITH VALUE!

The Trackpro Reports are jammed packed with wagering value, and often with overlooked horses that the betting public cannot seem to come up with no matter how hard they try! Racing fans that love to follow the money on the tote board, and only bet on horses with top trainers and jockeys can expect to win plenty of races for sure, but rarely if ever will they cash tickets like the two massive horizontal payouts listed above! Why? Because there is no substitute for Comprehensive Handicapping. It is as simple as that! The TPV algorithm is not perfect, but overall it does an outstanding job of listing winning selections that can sometimes light up the tote board at tremendous odds! Take a look at the following chart for three perfect examples of recent winning Trackpro selections that the betting public let leave the gate at odds of 56-1, 26-1, and 18-1 respectively!

RECENT LISTED LONGSHOTS IN OUR REPORTS!

SA	20260301	6	9	VIOLENCESOHR	$54.00
GP	20260314	12	9	TWIRLINGQUEEN	$38.20

And make no mistake, these horses figured to win, they were not so called "hopeless longshots". Not even close.

The winner of R7 which was the first leg of the listed PICK 5 and PICK 6 was the #3 UNSERACHABLE ($5.80) picked right on TOP for subscribers! This three year old colt sired by NOT THIS TIME, and trained by George Arnold (4.55%) finished third last race, after making a huge “middle move” passing six horses down the stretch while running wide. The bullet work just six days ago was timed in 36.3 seconds for three furlongs which set up the win at the same seven furlong distance. Notice the TPV marked this well bred colt with the Distance (d) Handicapping Tool! The betting public really liked the #2 AMBERJACK in this race which was made the post time favorite at 7/5 odds. Why? Probably because the horse was trained by Chad Brown (26.26%) and only lost by a length and a half at six furlongs last race. But clearly, looking at the Trackpro Power Rating (PR), Class (C), Bet Value (V), and Pace (P) ratings in the report shown above, the winner #3 UNSERACHABLE ($5.80) had much higher figures overall than the low priced favorite which finished third, and the favorite by the way had three YELLOW FLAGS to boot!

The winner in R8 at Gulfstream Park yesterday was the #7 MISS VYVYANNE ($18.40) picked right on TOP by the powerful TPV algorithm! This race was one of the required races for the National Thoroughbred Handicapping Championship being held in Las Vegas! The proprietary Trackpro Bet Value (V) rating also ranked the winner right on TOP. Despite the seven Handicapping Tools showing on the winner, the betting public just could not bring themselves to put a penny on this contender, because they refuse to bet horses coming off a long layoff, and with relatively low win percentage connections. The cold $2.00 Daily Double in R8 returned a rock solid $55.20, and the listed $2.00 Exacta "key" paid $99.80 for subscribers!

In the Trackpro selections for R9 shown above, the #1 ARBITER was scratched. The winner #6 FULMINE ($9.80) surely offered subscribers plenty of wagering value considering this contender was marked with a total of six Handicapping Tools and left the gate at almost 4-1 odds. The betting public pounded the post time odds on the favorite #7 DICIASSETTE down to a miserable 60 cents on the dollar. Note the three Trackpro YELLOW FLAGS on this favorite which are listed below:

- 1) The favorite was not listed on TOP in the Trackpro report.
- 2) The favorite did not earn a TPV rating over 2.00.
- 3) The favorite did not earn the top Trackpro Class Rating (C).

Racing fans can trust the betting public, and follow the so called “smart” money on the tote board all they want, but Trackpro sticks to the TPV handicapped selections no matter what the public or smart money thinks of the horse.

The TPV picks plenty of losing horses too, make no mistake about that, but at least I know for a fact that the TPV is going to have the winner listed in the majority of races handicapped, and on some days all of the winners will be listed regardless of what the betting public thinks of the horse at post time.

The winner in R10 was the #1 NO MORE OPTIONS ($12.20) listed third in the Trackpro report shown above. This was the only selection in the entire 50 cent PICK 5 ($24,429.35) and the 20 cent PICK 6 ($30,965.14) sequence that was not listed in the top two selections! But notice the TPV rating was tied on both the second and third picks (1.74) which rarely occurs, but unfortunately, the powerful algorithm listed the #9 EL KABONG second in the report for subscribers which prevented the TPV from listing the PICK 5 and PICK 6 in the top two selections! The listed two dollar Exacta returned a hefty $134.80. The listed two dollar Triple returned $490.40 both of which could have been "keyed" using the Trackpro POWER RATING WAGERING METHOD (PRWM) set forth in the February 25th newsletter which is posted on the website.

Yesterday at Gulfstream Park, the public post time favorite lost ten of the twelve races on the entire card. Not good! But thankfully, Trackpro subscribers do not need to trust the betting public to make their selections, they can leave the serious work of professional handicapping to the powerful Trackpro Value Rating (TPV) algorithm. The TPV performs COMPREHENSIVE HANDICAPPING in a manner found no where else on the internet. Take for example the outstanding selection in R12 shown below that sent the horizontal payoffs through the roof!

The TPV did an outstanding job of handicapping the final leg of the listed PICK 5 and PICK 6 yesterday for subscribers! The winner #9 TWIRLING QUEEN ($38.20) was marked up with a total of four Handicapping Tools, and the horse left the gate at massive 18-1 odds! Trackpro has mentioned many times in this newsletter that when the top selection is bet below 9/5 odds at post time, it often makes sense to move to the second selection in the report to find much more wagering value. And that is exactly what happened in this race! The top selection #1 MOON SPUN was bet down to a pathetic 6/5 at post time, figured strongly to win, but somehow managed to finish eighth in the ten horse field, running entirely out of the money. A perfect example of the Trackpro 9/5 WAGERING RULE in action! The second selection #9 TWIRLING QUEEN ($38.20) left the gate a full six points over the already sky high morning line set at 12-1 by the track racing analyst.

This five year old mare sired by TWIRLING CANDY was in excellent form making her second start off a relatively long layoff. The last workout was ranked second, and showed speed which took place seven days ago. And the workout before that was also quite good and ranked second. Trackpro gets paid to put overlooked contenders in the daily handicapped reports, and obviously, the #9 TWIRLING QUEEN ($38.20) provided a perfect example of doing just that!

The amazing Trackpro Value Rating (TPV) algorithm handicapped the late 20 cent PICK 6 (1 x 1 x 2 x 3 x 1 x 2) in R12 yesterday at Gulfstream Park that paid an incredible $30,965.14 for subscribers! And the TPV also listed the 50 cent PICK 5 (1 x 2 x 3 x 1 x 2) in R12 for subscribers that paid a wallet-busting $24,429.35! Even the late listed 50 cent PICK 4 (2 x 3 x 1 x 2) returned a fantastic $2,357.10!

So here are the listed win payoffs that comprised the entire PICK 6 sequence at Gulfstream Park yesterday: (R7 - $5.80, R8 - $18.40, R9 - $9.80, R10 - $12.20, R11 - $6.00, R12 - $38.20 ) Racing fans can trust the betting public and smart money on the tote board all they want, and all day long. As for Trackpro, I'll stick with the powerful COMPREHENSIVE HANDICAPPING performed by the TPV algorithm hands down! And by the way, the ten losing favorites yesterday at this track must have cost fans a pretty penny at the end of the day!
